COVER LEGEND

Thomas Hodgkin (1798-1866) of Guy's Hospital in London published a paper, entitled “On Some Morbid Appearances of the Absorbent Glands and Spleen” (Med.-Chir. Trans. 17: 68-114, 1832), describing 7 cases of which at least 2 were lymphogranulomas that were later termed Hodgkin's disease by Samuel Wilks. (Guy's Hosp. Rep., 3rd ser., 11: 56-67, 1865). The portrait of Hodgkin originally appeared in Guy's Hospital Reports, 74: opp. 117, 1924. The lymph node section of Hodgkin's Case II is Guy's Hospital No. 1523, 1828, reproduced from “Hodgkin's Disease and Allied Disorders,” by H. Jackson, Jr. and F. Parker, Oxford University Press, New York, 1947.
