2237 Toxicology and Carcinogenic Action of Pyrrolizidine Alkaloids.
R. Schoental.

2247 The Induction of Neoplasms of the Urinary Bladder of the Cow and the Small Intestine of the Rat by Feeding Bracken Fern (Pteris aquilina).
J. M. Price and A. M. Pamukcu.

2252 The Radiomimetic Nature of Bracken Toxin.
I. A. Evans.

2262 Toxicology of Cycasin.
G. L. Laqueur and M. Spatz.

2268 Plants Associated with Esophageal Cancer Cases in Curacoa.
Julia F. Morton.

2272 Biologic Screening of Selected Plant Material for Carcinogens.
R. W. O'Gara.

2276 Carcinogens from Fungi Pathogenic for Man.

2282 Biochemical Responses to Aflatoxins.
Gerald N. Wogan.

2288 Comparative Aspects of Aflatoxin-induced Hepatic Tumors.
M. C. Lancaster.

2293 Toxicity to Experimental Animals of 943 Isolates of Fungi.
C. M. Christensen, G. H. Nelson, C. J. Mirocha, and Fern Bates.

2296 Mycotoxins in Fermented Food.

2312 Synergism between Cyclopropenoid Fatty Acids and Chemical Carcinogens in Rainbow Trout (Salmo gairdneri).
D. J. Lee, J. H. Wales, J. L. Ayres, and R. O. Sinnhuber.
Physiologic Activity of Some Fungal Estrogens Produced by Fusarium.
C. J. Mirocha, C. M. Christensen, and G. H. Nelson.

Effects of Teratogenic Agents in Range Plants.
Wayne Binns, Lynn F. James, Richard F. Keeler, and Lew Dell Balls.

The Influence of a Low Lipotrope Diet on Response of Maternal and Fetal Rats to Lasiocarpine.
P. M. Newberne.

Cocarcinogenic Principles from the Seed Oil of Croton tiglium and from Other Euphorbiaceae.
Erich Hecker.

Tumor-promoting Agents from Croton tiglium L. and Their Mode of Action.
B. L. Van Duuren and A. Sivak.

Tobacco Carcinogenesis.
B. L. Van Duuren.

The Nature of Tumor-promoting Agents in Tobacco Products.
Fred G. Bock.

A Geographic Study of the Relationship between Oral Cancer and Plants.
Lucia J. Dunham.

The Carcinogenicity of Essential Oils, Flavors, and Spices: A Review.
F. Homburger and Eliahu Boger.

The Mutagenic Action of Caffeine in Higher Organisms.

The Effects of Soil and Diet on Disease.
E. F. Rose.

COVER LEGEND

Edgar Allen (1892–1943) was an internationally known authority on the physiology of sex and reproduction and was one of the best known anatomists of his era. He demonstrated, in 1923, that the ovarian follicle was a source of a hormone, which was extracted and purified in collaboration with E. A. Doisy (E. Allen and E. A. Doisy, J. Am. Med. Assoc., 81: 819–821, 1923). Later he investigated the relation of ovarian hormones to the genesis of cancer of the genital tract (E. Allen and W. U. Gardner, Cancer Res., 1: 359–366, 1941). An obituary appears in Science, 97: 368–369, 1943.

William Ullman Gardner (b. 1907), an associate of Allen, succeeded him as Professor of Anatomy at Yale University. Gardner has made many contributions to our knowledge of the role of hormones in neoplasia, of the role of heredity to hormonal and neoplastic responses, and of hormonal imbalance in tumorigenesis (cf. Cancer Res., 2: 476–488, 1942; Ibid., 5: 497–505, 1954; Ibid., 8: 397–411, 1948). His influence extends through his students, many of whom made their initial discoveries under his guidance. He was President of the American Association for Cancer Research, 1946–1947, and occupies important posts in national and international cancer organizations.

We are indebted to Yale University for the portraits; Allen (left); Gardner (right).
