Leukemia.
It's no longer a death sentence.

When you were young, no form of cancer terrified your parents more than leukemia did.
Just fifteen years ago, a child with leukemia could expect to live only months. But, thanks to research, things have changed.
Children who once lived months are now living years. Many of them are growing up. Some are already adults, living normal lives.
Did you ever wonder what the American Cancer Society did with the money you gave us? Well, some of it went to leukemia research. And, if we had more we could do more. Give to the American Cancer Society.
