Manuscript Processing Fee
Journal policy requires that a manuscript processing fee of $75 be assessed for each paper to defray the expenses incurred in the editorial review process. Each manuscript submitted for publication should be accompanied by a check (drawn on a U.S. bank) or purchase order for $75 in U.S. currency, payable to Cancer Research at the above address. Note: If an author resubmits a manuscript that weEditors previously found unacceptable for publication, it is journal policy to consider it a new submission, assign it a new manuscript number, and charge the author another $75 handling fee to cover the cost of review.

Page Charges
Accepted manuscripts will be published with the understanding that the author(s) will pay a charge of $65 per printed page. Under exceptional circumstances, when no source of grant or other support exists, the author(s) may apply to Dr. Carlo M. Croce, Editor-in-Chief, at the time of submission, for a waiver of the page charges. All such applications must be countersigned by an appropriate institutional official stating that no funds are available for the payment of page charges.

Copyright and Copyright Clearance Center
The Copyright Revision Act (PL 94-553), which became effective January 1, 1978, states that the copyright of a work is vested in the author from the moment of creation. Therefore, all authors who wish to publish in Cancer Research must formally transfer copyright to the proprietor of the journal, the American Association for Cancer Research, Inc. It is understood by this transfer that the authors relinquish all exclusive rights of copyright ownership, including the rights of reproduction, derivation, distribution, sale, and display.

However, it is necessary for these authors to sign the appropriate section of the transfer form. In the case of articles supported by federal grants or contracts, copyright transfer to the American Association for Cancer Research, Inc., is required. The federal government may retain a nonexclusive license to publish or republish such material.

Copies of articles for which the American Association for Cancer Research, Inc. owns the copyright may be made for personal or internal use, provided that the copier pay the per-copy fee of $2 through the Copyright Clearance Center, Inc. This Center is a nonprofit organization through which individuals and institutions may reimburse a copyright owner for photocopying journal articles beyond what is defined as "fair use" in Sections 107 and 108 of the Copyright Revision Act of 1978. Those who wish to photocopy Cancer Research articles may report the number of copies they have made, together with the fee code (0008-5472/94 $2.00, to: Copyright Clearance Center, Inc., 222 Rosewood Drive, Danvers, MA 01923; (508) 750-8400.
