NOMINATIONS FOR THE ANNUAL AWARDS OF THE AMERICAN ASSOCIATION FOR CANCER RESEARCH, INC.

The Board of Directors of the American Association for Cancer Research wishes to remind Active and Emeritus members that it is their privilege to nominate candidates for the four annual awards of the Association: the G. H. A. Clowes Memorial Award, the Richard and Hinda Rosenthal Foundation Award, the Cornelius P. Rhoads Memorial Award, and the Bruce F. Cain Memorial Award.

The procedure by which annual awardees are selected is described below. Nominations are reviewed by members of the Awards Committee of the Board of Directors. For this purpose the Awards Committee is divided into four subcommittees, one for each of the named awards. The leading candidate for each award, usually with one or two runners-up, is selected by each of the respective subcommittees and recommended to the Chairman of the parent committee who in turn forwards the recommendation to the Policy Committee of the Board of Directors for final approval. Guidelines for submission of nominations are presented in the following paragraphs.

Clowes Memorial Award. The Twenty-third Clowes Award will be given at the 1983 annual meeting of the American Association for Cancer Research in San Diego, California, May 25-28, 1983. The award was established by the Eli Lilly Company to honor Dr. G. H. A. Clowes who had been a founding member of the American Association for Cancer Research and a research director of Eli Lilly. The annual award is to give "recognition of outstanding research accomplished in some recent period." Each recipient delivers the annual Clowes Award Lecture immediately after the award is tendered.

Nominations for the Twenty-third Clowes Award are due by October 1, 1982. Each should include the following: the nominee's curriculum vitae, the titles and journal citations for ten of the nominee's most outstanding and relevant publications, a nominating letter from an Active or Emeritus member which in one or two brief paragraphs cites the outstanding contributions of the nominee, and a letter from a second Active or Emeritus member in support of the nomination. All documents are to be sent to the office of the American Association for Cancer Research for distribution to the appropriate Awards Subcommittee.

Rosenthal Foundation Award. The Seventh Rosenthal Award will also be given at the 1983 annual meeting in San Diego, California. This award was established by the Rosenthal Foundation to "recognize research which has made or gives the promise of soon making a notable contribution to improved clinical care in the field of cancer." The intent of the award is to honor and provide incentive to young investigators relatively early in their careers. It was stipulated that the award be limited to individuals who are engaged in the practice of medicine, who reside in the Americas, and who will not be more than 50 years of age at the time of the award. Each recipient delivers the annual Rosenthal Award Lecture immediately after the award is tendered.

Nominations for the Seventh Rosenthal Foundation Award are due by October 1, 1982. Each should include documentation like that described above for the Clowes Award. All documents are to be submitted to the office of the American Association for Cancer Research.

Rhoads Memorial Award. The Fourth Rhoads Award will be given at the 1983 annual meeting in San Diego, California. This award was established to honor Dr. C. P. Rhoads, a founder of and the first Director of the Sloan-Kettering Institute for Cancer Research. The annual award gives recognition to an "individual on the basis of meritorious achievement in cancer research." The donor expressed the wish that the award be granted to young investigators. In concurrence with the donor's request, the Board of Directors has stipulated that the recipient must not have reached the forty-first birthday at the time of the award. Each recipient delivers the annual Rhoads Award Lecture immediately after the award is tendered.

Nominations for the Fourth Rhoads Award are due by October 1, 1982. Each should include the following: The nominee's curriculum vitae, the titles and journal citations for all of the nominee's research publications, a nominating letter from an Active or Emeritus member describing in one or two brief paragraphs the outstanding contributions of the nominee, and a supporting letter from a second Active or Emeritus member. Reprints of two or three of the nominee's most outstanding publications are optional though desirable. All documents are to be submitted to the office of the American Association for Cancer Research.

Cain Memorial Award. The Second Cain Award will be given at the 1983 annual meeting in San Diego, California. This award was established by the Warner-Lambert Company to honor Dr. Bruce F. Cain whose scientific interests had involved the design, synthesis, and biological evaluation of potential antitumor drugs. The annual award is to "give recognition to an individual or research team for outstanding preclinical research leading to the discovery of a significant new therapeutic agent for the improved care of cancer patients." Each recipient delivers the annual Cain Award Lecture immediately after the award is tendered.

Nominations for the Second Cain Award are due by October 1, 1982. Each should include documentation like that described above for the Clowes Award. All documents are to be submitted to the office of the American Association for Cancer Research.

Kindly forward nominations for these four awards to: Margaret Foti, Executive Director, American Association for Cancer Research, Temple University Medical School, Student-Faculty Center, LB-41, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania 19140.

ELECTION OF DIRECTORS OF THE AMERICAN ASSOCIATION FOR CANCER RESEARCH, INC.

The Board of Directors of the American Association for Cancer Research wishes to encourage voting members to suggest nominees for election to the Board of Directors. To achieve this purpose the mail ballot for the election of the new Directors who are to take office at the Annual Meeting in May 1983 will be delayed until January 1983 so that voting members will have ample opportunity to suggest nominees to the Nominating Committee before the slate of candidates is completed.

Members are invited to send suggestions in writing for consideration by the Nominating Committee to the office of the American Association for Cancer Research. All such communications received on or before October 1, 1982, will be distributed immediately to the Committee. Alternatively, individuals may wish to communicate directly with members of the Nominating Committee who are: Chairman, Charles J. Kensler, Arthur D. Little, Inc., Acorn Park, Cambridge, Massachusetts 02140; Pietro M. Gullino, National Cancer Institute, National Institutes of Health, Bethesda, Maryland 20205; and Alfred G. Knudson Jr., Institute for Cancer Research, 7701 Burholme Avenue, Fox Chase, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania 19111.

Kindly forward any nominations to: Margaret Foti, Executive Director, American Association for Cancer Research, Temple University School of Medicine, Student-Faculty Bldg., LB-41, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania 19140.
